TWENTY-HOUR-DAY ELECTRIC CURRENT TO BE FURNISHED CITY

St. Cloud is to have a twenty-hour day electric service at a very early date, the City Council having decided on that service at a special meeting held last Saturday, when several other important matters were also discussed. The new schedule is to begin at 5 a. m. each day and run until 1 a. m. the following morning, giving electric current for lights and power during twenty hours out of each day, the additional run to begin as soon as a suitable engineer can be secured for the work. Demands upon the city plant have justified this increased service, and the information that a longer run is to be made will be welcome news to every household and business man in the city.

Extension of the street lighting service and service to residences was discussed and laid over until another meeting in order to decide on just what extension of service can be made at this time.

The meeting last Saturday was called to take up several matters that had to be disposed of before the first of the month, one of which was the passage of an ordinance authorizing the issuance of time warrants to pay the outstanding indebtedness shown by the auditor's report last May. This ordinance was passed Saturday and settlements will be made with those who had unpaid bills against the city, in accordance with the provisions of a special act authorizing the issuance of time warrants. In this way the indebtedness will be spread over a period of several years and will not materially affect the city tax rate.

"WISEACRES" OF WASHINGTON WON'T NAME NEXT PRESIDENT

BY ROBERT A. EDSON
Washington Special Correspondent for St. Cloud Tribune.

CONGRESS KNOWS WHAT IS IN STORE FOR THE NEXT PRESIDENT

The discussion as to presidential timber is always a favorite subject in the cloak rooms and committee rooms at both ends of the Capitol. Favorite sons and dark horses run an equal race at times, but coming down to brass tacks, the wiseacres are just about as much at sea as those who do not profess to know so much. All are agreed, however, on one point, and that is that the next president will have some of the greatest problems to solve that have ever fallen to the lot of a Chief Executive of this nation. None realize this better than those who are called upon to do their part in framing laws to cover the problems that have arisen so far. It is admitted without reservation that the present administration encountered many difficult situations during the war and that the president had the country solidly at his back, advancing in a compact phalanx to meet and vanquish the common foe, yet despite the trying times of the period, the President has found time for recreation and pleasure. But, looking ahead, those in charge of the country's affairs know that many months will be required to anywhere near solve some of the problems upon which they are now at work; hence the conclusion that the next occupant of the White House will have a full measure of work, worries, cares and responsibilities. He will be confronted with the task of uniting a country split into many rival factions, each pulling in a direction calculated to benefit itself. Capital and labor questions will be with us for several years. The high cost of living must be definitely settled. Great international questions will be constantly arising, calling for the utmost skill in handling. The Mexican question will be the last of all the great questions that will be answered. These are, roughly, some of the things he must deal with and no one can forecast what others may arise during the next few years. According to the solons, the path ahead of the next president is not one set with perils.

Busy days are these at the State Department, busy nights, also, in the section which has special charge of the details covering the reception and entertainment of the Nation's guests from foreign lands. They are coming so thick and fast that an enlarged force of officials has become necessary so that it will be absolutely certain that every comfort and convenience will be afforded the noted visitors. It is a gigantic task any way that it is looked

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 3D, IS TO BE OBSERVED AS "NATIONAL THRIFT DAY"

MESSAGE FROM SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY CARTER GLASS TO BE READ IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS THROUGHOUT THE NATION TOMORROW.

Two million school children in the Southeast will receive a message direct from Secretary of the Treasury Glass on Oct. 3d, "National Thrift Day."

The message will be an appeal to the boys and girls to continue "to practice and make permanent those same habits of industry and economy, that through your influence and example America may soon become a nation of savers and cease to be a wasteful nation."

The same message will be read in every school room in America. The 70,000 thousand teachers who will deliver the message to the children in the Sixth Federal Reserve District, will supplement the Secretary's letter with a request that children bring their savings to school regularly once a week so that their pennies, nickels and dimes may be put in Government Thrift and Savings stamps and returned to them. A letter making this request of the teachers has been sent out by Elias W. Davis, Government director of savings of this district.

The Secretary's letter follows: "To the School Boys and School Girls of America:— "In addressing the twenty million or more of school boys and girls of this country, I am addressing the citizen-ship, the business and professional men and women, the producers and consumers and the home makers of only a few years hence. The responsibility of all the problems of our country will ultimately fall upon you. The spirit of patriotism and helpfulness which you displayed during the world war has proved your fitness for your future responsibility. Your record in production of needed materials during the war, your saving of food and money, and your investment in government securities make a record of which every American citizen is justly proud.

"It is the earnest desire of your government that you should continue to practice and make permanent those same habits of industry and economy, that through your influence and example America may soon become a nation of savers and cease to be a wasteful nation; that this may be a nation of people who always save some part of their earnings, who spend money with greatest care, and who invest what they save in some safe place.

"I am glad to see that our school boys and girls have continued during the vacation months to save their money and are buying Thrift and War Savings stamps, thus laying aside a portion of the money they earn for some future purpose and while they are continuing to render some service to their government they are at the same time providing for their own needs.

"The habit of earning and saving money is a most interesting and happy one. I am sure that this habit has become so fascinating to you that you will continue to earn and to save through all the months and years to come, and keep investing what you save in Government securities.

"It is my personal hope that the lessons of thrift that are being taught in your school may help you to develop in your life permanent habits of saving and thereby lay a foundation for your personal happiness and usefulness and ultimately for a bigger and better America.

Sincerely yours,
CARTER GLASS."

Director of Railroads Ask For the Continued Co-operation of Shipper

Walker D. Hines, Director General of Railroads, recently authorized the following statement asking the further cooperation of shippers and receivers of freight on promoting freight car efficiency:

During the war no one was more patriotically helpful to the American shipper. With zeal and efficiency he did his part in the common cause.

The Railroad Administration had excellent opportunity to observe this attitude during the war and has appreciated heartily the subsequent continued cooperation of the great majority of the shippers.

The time has now come for renewed efforts by both Railroad Administration and the shippers and receivers of freight so that the nation's transportation services may be rendered with the greatest satisfaction possible under the circumstances.

An unusually heavy grain and coal movement deferred repair and the construction of public highways in all sections of the country and the concentrated requirements of suddenly reviving business, combined with the usual transportation requirements at this time of the year, threaten a serious lack of transportation facilities unless all parties interested cooperate in securing the greatest possible utility from the existing limited transportation facilities.

In this connection attention is invited to the following extract from a recent public statement of the President:

"We have now got to do nothing less than bring our industries and our labor of every kind back to a normal basis after the greatest upheaval known to history, and the winter just ahead of us may bring suffering infinitely greater than the war brought upon us if we blunder or fail in the process. An admirable spirit of self-sacrifice, of patriotic devotion and of community action guided and inspired us while the fighting was on. We shall need all these now, and need them in a heightened degree. If we are to accomplish the first tasks of peace.

The Railroad Administration will do its full part. The Car Service Section in Washington and the various regional organizations are striving earnestly to secure a fair and just distribution of the existing equipment as well as to meet the requirements of individual shippers. Of the 100,000 new freight cars which the Railroad Administration ordered constructed 32,122 had been completed on Sept. 13 and are now in service and this number is being increased at the rate of over 900 each working day. Instructions have been issued to all Regional Directors to bend every effort to speed up road and yard movements, to secure heavier loading of equipment to establish and maintain complete and accurate yard checks to reduce the number of bad order cars to make prompt delivery to connections to effect early deliveries at freight houses and team tracks to reduce the number of freight cars used in the transportation of company material and to expedite the movement of grain cars in terminals. The hours of labor of car shop employees have

The recent great storm at Corpus Christi, Texas, gave great concern to Attorney Ackerman's family. Mr. Ackerman's mother lived in Corpus Christi. In the flood she lost all her personal effects, household goods, wearing apparel, etc., escaping with life alone. For many days Mrs. Ackerman received no word from her mother. Naturally she was very much alarmed.

STATE ASSEMBLY PRESIDENT OF REBEKAHS VISITS KISSIMMEE

On Sept. 30 Kissimmee Rebekah Lodge No. 42 was honored by a fraternal visit from Sister Robbins, president of the Rebekah Assembly, in company with Sister Anderson of Benevolent Lodge No. 23, Sister Anderson being the efficient D. D. G. P. of the 12th District. The affair was a call meeting, arranged by N. G. Sister Thrasher, the special business of which was to give the Rebekahs an opportunity to meet our Grand President, who is officially visiting the Rebekah lodges throughout our state.

Our president was enthusiastically received, and by her sympathetic manner and kindly counsel made many warm friends among the Kissimmee Rebekahs. After instructive work and talks upon the good of the order, refreshments were served.

St. Cloud Rebekah Lodge was represented by G. N. G. Sister French, who in the name of the St. Cloud Rebekahs agreed to co-operate with the Kissimmee Rebekahs in holding the next district meeting in Kissimmee in February next. Sister Anderson of Orlando No. 23 promised the assistance of the Orlando Rebekahs in this undertaking, so we may with confidence, considering the co-operation promised, look forward to having an instructive, lively and enjoyable district meeting in February next.

Those who attended the district meeting in Orlando of Sept. 25th know what to expect, and we feel confident they will not be disappointed.

REAL ESTATE MOVING RAPIDLY IN ST. CLOUD AS SEASON ADVANCES

St. Cloud is experiencing a good business in real estate transfers during the past month, and as the season advances, more and more new people become the owners of homes in St. Cloud.

Every train brings new people to St. Cloud, and most of them are coming with a view of locating here permanently, so every real estate dealer is very active at this time. Sales occur every day, quite a number of the sales being made by the individual owners.

During the past few days Lamb's Real Estate Exchange reports the following:

The Lake View hotel property to R. H. Silaby. This place will be thoroughly overhauled and placed in the hands of competent managers, and cater to the traveling public throughout the year. Mr. Silaby is a heavy investor in St. Cloud properties, which indicates his great faith in the future of this city.

The W. W. Harman home place on Pennsylvania avenue has been sold to H. C. Hartley, one of St. Cloud's leading merchants, and a member of the Board of School Trustees for the St. Cloud district.

The O. E. Bennet home and four lots on Louisiana avenue have been sold to Joe H. Barber.

A. D. Harmon place and four lots on Virginia avenue have been sold to T. B. Bass.

Mr. Lamb also reports the sale of 25 acres in Section 25, 26, 30 to J. B. Hudson.

In next week's issue of the Tribune will be published a proclamation, issued by Mayor B. F. Ralls, calling upon the citizens in general to inaugurate a clean-up campaign. The influx of winter visitors is at hand and already pretty well under way, and no one will question the appropriateness and timeliness of the movement.

REBEKAHS OF TWELFTH DISTRICT OF FLORIDA CONVENED IN ORLANDO

(By H. E. Swabey.)

President Sister Robbins of Miami attended the 12th District meeting held at Orlando.

At the successful meeting which was one of the most enjoyable ever held in Orlando the Rebekahs celebrated their 68th anniversary in a highly creditable manner. The meeting was called to order by Sister Anderson D. G. P. at 4 p. m. and was responded to by a large number of the members of Benevolent Lodge No. 23 and by delegates from Kissimmee No. 47, St. Cloud lodge, and although not in the 12th District, Deland was represented by N. G. Sister French and others. A car load of Odd Fellows motored over from Leesburg. Those brothers were headed by the N. G. of Leesburg Subordinate Lodge No. 58, who assured the sisters and brothers assembled that the Odd Fellows of the Gen City were determined to organize a Rebekah lodge in their midst, and as we know, the Gen City always future we may expect another link welded into our chain.

The Program

The program was full of pleasant surprises coupled with collective and individual wit.

The question box and answers were very instructive and interesting. Space does not permit us to extol the deserving efforts.

The individual members of No. 23 instructed and entertained their visitors. Suffice it to say, from the vivacious N. G. down to Brother Dale, they acquitted themselves with great credit and helped to uphold the honor roll and high esteem in which they are held by the Rebekahs and brothers throughout the state of Florida.

Baltimore's Liberty to the I. O. O. F. Brother John T. Dale, who was the State Encampment delegate to the Supreme Grand Lodge, was by entertained the assembly with a graphic description of the actions of the S. G. L. and the lavish hospitality of the citizens of Baltimore, who went so far as to equip a temporary park with a beautiful display of statuary and a grand electric display at a cost of $20,000. Due praise be given to the citizens of Baltimore.

They further gave two free river entertaining excursions to the assembled Odd Fellows. These undertakings were colossal in their magnitude.

Baltimore is the alma mater of American Odd Fellowship, the order having been founded there 100 years ago. Well has our mother nourished her offspring and guided our untrained footsteps along the rugged pathways of organization, until we now number 2,220,000 members.

Brother Dale had the honor of reading Brother W. H. Barnes, Sec. of our Grand Encampment, speak. Brother Barnes, hails from California, is over 84 years of age and has been a staunch Odd Fellow for over 60 years. Brother Barnes' speech, which he delivered before the Sovereign Grand Lodge, is to be engraved and a copy sent to every Odd Fellow in North America, including Canada.

A touching little incident occurred at the Rebekah meeting well worth noting.

On behalf of the Rebekahs of Benevolent No. 23, Brother Dale, that diamond of the first water, within a setting of pure gold, presented a small token of esteem, (as all who are acquainted with him may be certain) with appropriate courtesies to Sister and Brother Eaton, the meeting occurring on the 40th anniversary of their wedding day.

Sister Eaton although taken by surprise, managed to thank the sisters for their remembrance, but Brother Eaton, after 40 years of married life, apparently considered that Silence is Golden, or he was too full of pleasure for utterance.

The Kissimmee orchestra received a deserved ovation, and the beautiful figure drill of the Orlando Rebekahs was performed in a perfect manner. P. D. D. G. M. Brother John L. Overstreet spoke of the great benefits the Odd Fellows as an order were receiving from the Rebekah branch of our order and the noble work our sisters were helping us to perform towards relieving the distress of humanity, etc.

Brother Moorey, P. D. D. G. M. of the Province of Ontario, Canada, but now an active Florida Odd Fellow, was toastmaster and proved a host in himself. Others entertained the assembly, but space compels me to desist. Fifteen Rebekahs attended from St. Cloud and 33 from Kissimmee. Reader, if you are an Odd Fellow or even only a friend of our order and did not attend this meeting, you certainly missed one of the most instructive and enjoyable events ever staged by the Orlando Rebekahs, who numerically are 139 strong.

long's Long Jane 717910 Sold to Mississippi Breeder for $12,000.

Twenty-six pure-bred hogs brought $10,000 in two hours and a half at the auction sale held last Wednesday at the famous breeding farm of Z. C. Herlong in Micanopy. This is said to be a record, even of older breeding sections of the country, and is an indication of the remarkable possibilities Florida offers the stock raiser.

Twenty-three brood sows sold, averaged 0404 each and the highest point reached was when No. 2 Herlong's Long Jane 717910, was sold for $1,200 to a prominent Mississippi breeder. A number of the best sows and gilts went to Georgia buyers but most of the fine stock will remain in Florida to improve the herds of the state.

men and farmers, who went on the special Pullman from Jacksonville on Tuesday night to attend the sale, returned yesterday morning filled with enthusiasm for the remarkable success of the sale and with praise for the splendid entertainment provided by Mr. and Mrs. Herlong.

The car, containing thirty-four people, reached Micanopy early Wednesday morning and was met at the depot by Mr. Herlong and several business men, who carried the women in their cars to the fine colonial home of the Herlongs, while the men walked the short distance. There a sumptuous breakfast was served to the entire party, after which they were taken to the Herlong farm, about two miles from town, in automobiles.

Following the sale, which was attended by about 700 people, most of whom were served with a splendid picnic dinner in the grove adjoining the sale pavilion at noon. The Jacksonville party was driven to the big stock farms of Mr. Simonton and Mr. Willis and shown their fine herds of cattle and hogs and on the return to Micanopy the big home of the Herlongs was again the scene of enthusiastic discussion of the wonderful sale until a splendid supper was served by the charming hostess. The car was taken to the junction by the local train and remained there until the night train from Tampa picked it up and brought it to the city yesterday morning.

Those on the special train were Dr. W. F. Blackman, president of the State Live Stock Association; W. A. McRae, state commissioner of agriculture; Col. Ira Cottingham and son of Illinois; Col. Scott of Georgia; H. H. Simmons, C. W. Zaring, S. F. Williams, Charles S. Emerson, B. F. Williamson, J. J. Logan, Dr. J. G. Fish, Howard Curry, A. A. Coult, J. C. Curts who were united in marriage on the anniversary of their wedding at the home of their son, Frank N. Curtis, at Fluvanna last Sunday, so says the Warren (Pa.) Mirror.

Four daughters and three sons were born to this union. Three daughters have passed away. Those surviving are Mrs. Anna Miller of North Warren, Pa.; Frank Nelson Curtis of Fluvanna; Clyde Thompson Curtis of Jamestown, and Dr. Harry Allen Curtis of Corry.

They have twelve grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Mrs. Curtis was the oldest of a family of four children and all are living and were present at the anniversary. They are: Mrs. W. F. Gregg of Kane, Pa.; Will W. Thompson of Ridgway, Pa., and Mrs. A. A. Van Vleck of Jamestown.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis were born in Warren county, Pa., and resided there until ten years ago, when they moved to St. Cloud, Fla., and have made their home there since that time.

Mr. Curtis is a veteran of the Civil war and attended the national encampment at Columbus, Ohio, last week. Both he and his bride of sixty years are in excellent health.

Those present at the anniversary besides the guests of honor were: Mrs. W. F. Gregg and Miss Ethel Gregg of Kane, Pa.; W. W. Thompson of Ridgway, Pa.; Mrs. Anna Miller and daughter Avis of North Warren, Pa.; Dr. and Mrs. Harry A. Curtis and two sons George and Harrison and Miss Coletta Bennett a granddaughter of Corry, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde T. Curtis and daughters Audrey and Cora, and son Nelson; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Van Vleck and Mrs. Marietta Curtis of Jamestown, and Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Curtis of Fluvanna; Miss Marie Curtis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Curtis, who was in the service as a Red Cross nurse at Camp Mills, N. Y., who recently received her discharge and is now employed in the Corry hospital, was unable to be present.

At 1 o'clock a delicious chicken dinner was served. Snapshots were taken of the bride and bridegroom, of the bride and her two sisters and brother and one of all present. At the close of a very pleasant and enjoyable day the guests departed, wishing the happy couple many more returns of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis will leave in a few days for their home in St. Cloud.

Mr. Curtis was born in Warren in 1839. At the time of his marriage he conducted a shoe store in Lander and was deputy postmaster. Mr. Curtis says that during one of the regular elections he was solicited to vote and to questions being asked as to his age he voted for the first time when he was 19, voting for Abraham Lincoln.

He celebrated his 80th birthday August 28, 1919. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis will make their winter home in Florida.

Lots of people are learning the value of repaired garments and shoes.—Ex.

ROBERT L. TERRY WRITES OF TRIP TO CALIFORNIA

Friends of Mrs. W. L. Terry, who lived in St. Cloud for several years, but who recently started on a trip to California in company with her son, Robert, will regret to learn that her condition has been somewhat critical for the past several days. In a letter to a friend of the family, received last week, Robert Terry gave an account of their trip and the illness of his mother, as follows:

"As my mother wished you to know the outcome of our trip, and as she is unable to write you herself, I am doing so, though we are not yet at our journey's end and do not know when we shall be."

"We got along very well until the evening of September 10th when, just after leaving Reno, Nev., a hernia, which my mother has had for several years, unknown to me, became strangulated, and she suffered internal pain for about four hours, until we reached this point (Auburn, Cal.), where we were directed to stop by a physician who was on the train. There is a good little private hospital here, and a surgeon of the name of Dr. ...

... of the name of Dr. ... we left the train. She suffered severe pain and was unable to move. A person of her age, and for two days her prospects looked bright, but since then her condition has been less favorable owing mainly to her inability to retain nourishment. While the doctor and nurse still consider her case as a hopeful one, there is a strong possibility that it may turn out otherwise. In any event, I shall let you know the result, as she has been very anxious that the friends whom she promised to write to, should not be allowed to think she had forgotten them. Will you kindly answer any inquiries whom you meet and accept my thanks for your many kindnesses to her and the rest of us.

Sincerely your friend,
ROBERT A. TERRY."

COMMENDS CONDUCTOR FOR ASSISTING AGED VETERAN

Mrs. Elizabeth Claussen has returned to her home in St. Cloud after attending the meeting of veterans and members of the W. R. C. at Columbus, Ohio, and called on the Tribune to tell something of her trip and to express her appreciation and commendation of Conductor C. L. Belvis, who was in charge of the Pullman car in which a number of St. Cloud people traveled to the reunion. Mrs. Claussen states that at Jacksonville Mrs. C. B. Hughes met her husband to accompany him to the home of a daughter in Columbus, and that Mr. Hughes was in a pitiable condition, due to neglect of attendants that had accompanied him to Jacksonville a day ahead of Mrs. Hughes' arrival. After being placed on the Pullman for Columbus friends of Mr. Hughes soon discovered that he needed medical attention, and failing to locate a physician on their car, appealed to the conductor, Mr. Belvis, who, when he learned that Mr. Hughes was a veteran and helpless, did all in his power to make him comfortable and secured for him the proper treatment throughout the whole trip, calling to his aid porters from other Pullman cars to lift Mr. Hughes to a comfortable berth after seeing that he had been given proper attention. Mrs. Hughes wrote the Tribune a letter, which was printed last week, but Mrs. Claussen says that the conductor was commended by all of the St. Cloud delegation who learned of his assistance to Mr. Hughes.

Mrs. Claussen celebrated her 69th birthday last Sunday and is enjoying the best of health and receiving the congratulations of her many friends and their best wishes that she may enjoy many more anniversaries.

Referring to the reunion again Mrs. Claussen stated that the attendance at Columbus was very large and while the trip was tiresome to many of the veterans they enjoyed the meeting with comrades again.

"DADDY LONG LEGS"

Mary Pickford, without doubt the greatest favorite of the motion picture public, will be seen at the Casino theatre, Kissimmee, Friday, Oct. 10th, in her latest picture, "Daddy Long Legs," an adaptation of the popular play by Jean Webster. Incidentally, this is Miss Pickford's first picture to be released through the First National Exhibitors Circuit and judging from advance reports, it is indeed a worthy production to mark the beginning of this new affiliation. The picture was adapted for the screen by Agnes Johnston and produced under the direction of Marshall Neilan the same director who presided over some of her best Arctcraft pictures.

Throughout the length of the picture the spectator is treated to excellent comedy and that same sort of wholesome sentiment that was constantly visible in the original play. Miss Pickford is at her best when in these two moods the humorous and the sentimental. As the little orphan of the miserably run asylum she creates a delightful character. The comedy of the opening reels is rich in the extreme. Judy's troubles with the severe Mrs. Lippett are responsible for not the least portion of humor while they also serve the added groundwork for the pathos.

However, the statement that the picture was directed by Mr. Neilan really gives ample proof that it is filled with all the comedy possible. Certainly all of Miss Pickford's admirers will be pleased to welcome her back to the screen in such a genuinely fine production as "Daddy Long Legs."

GRANDDAUGHTER OF ST. CLOUD
VETERAN WEDS

The Bloomington (Ill.) Daily Bulletin of Sept. 12th contained an item of interest to the many friends of Comrade J. R. Palmer of this city, when it told of the wedding of a granddaughter of Mr. Palmer, which occurred in the 12th. The Bulletin says: "Little Cupid will lead two more converts to his shrine this evening when Ben Harris of Moline, Ill., weds Miss Pauline Palmer. The wedding is to occur at the home of Rev. Henry Abraham, 104 North Fell avenue, pastor of the Presbyterian church, at 6 o'clock."

"This little wedding ends a courtship which has extended over a period of two years and has had an uncertain turn, but Dan Cupid, with his clever managing, brought the soldier boy back to America safe and sound, and this evening they are going to start through life together. The wedding has been kept a secret until today."

Miss Palmer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Palmer, who reside near Normal, and a granddaughter of Comrade J. R. Palmer of St. Cloud, Fla.

A newspaper headline: "200,000 Now on Strike for More Pay," must sound good to the man who is out of a job.

A bunch of tailors have gone on a strike at Tampa. Of course, this will make another excuse why suits "seam sew" high.

Now Italy wants Wilson to say what shall be done about the action of the crazy poet who took Flume. Woodrow will have to hark back to school days and order a sound spanking applied.

Whoever proposed to locate a leper colony anywhere along the Florida coast certainly stirred up a hornet's nest. No section of the state seems willing to permit the government to locate such a place within their territory.

Sheriff Ingram has been making illicit liquor makers feel restless during the past week. He has started a genuine cleanup of the county and is filling the county jail. This kind of business is going to make the price of moonshine mighty high, Mr. Sheriff.

The phosphate companies operating in the Bartow and Mulberry district have secured a federal injunction against the strikers, prohibiting interference with the operation of the phosphate mines. Jacksonville labor leaders now threaten to call a state-wide sympathetic strike in retaliation.

Mrs. Oscar Bray of Waldenbridge, Fla., is the proud mother of five babies born a few days ago. As soon as the Sturgis Michigan, Steel Co. at New York read of it they telegraphed her at once that they had sent in a rush order and she would soon have a go-cart which could carry the five babies.—Ex.

One way to overcome the strike conditions existing in most of the large commercial centers, is to move to some good town in Florida, and live among conditions where people make real homes and produce their share of the world's goods. St. Cloud offers many opportunities to people of the crowded cities.

"I do not wish to live a single day after that right (the strike) is taken away," was Samuel Gompers' comment on the Cummins bill now pending in Congress, one of the provisions of which would attempt to prohibit workmen from striking. "If (the Cummins bill) wouldn't stop strikes, it would just make lawbreakers," he concluded. Gompers ought to know the sentiment of labor pretty well having been president of the American Federation of Labor for more than 25 years.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To Editor of St. Cloud Tribune:

I trust that you don't mind having a letter written to you, when you realize how important it is for your readers to be especially interested in the amount of money due you to pay for your valuable paper we so enjoy reading every week. It is strange how one will get careless and neglect to fulfill a promise, as I have not been able to write my friends during these summer months, and so permit me, through the columns of your able paper, to say there is something in the name of St. Cloud that strongly appeals to me, because it signifies so much that is praiseworthy, so much that implies helpfulness, kindness. For what it has done in the past it deserves the highest commendation, and what it may do in the future depends almost wholly on ourselves. And this brings me to a subject that I never tire of, and that is the beautiful life we live and enjoy among our friends. Oh, what a wonderful society St. Cloud has been to the people of the North, the South, the East and of the West, even beyond the borders of our domains. Monday, Sept. 22, was the official opening of autumn. Reminds us when the sun's center crosses the Equator. The cold, drizzly rain-falls and the chilling blasts of winter will overtake us if we remain in Michigan, which I am quite sure we will be obliged to do on account of my poor health.

Our Heavenly Father does not close the avenues of law to any of the "ruses." The divine requirements call upon us to shun those indulgences that would bring suffering and disappointment, so I trust the dear Father will satisfy the heart longing of us all who consent to be good and willing.

that we might be able to spend the coming winter among our St. Cloud friends and that I might live to see our city people living in harmony and peace. No matter how competent and earnest the prayers may be they can do nothing without the cooperation of the members. One is necessary to the other. Cut out your personalities and vote for the man you think best fitted for the office. There is neither money or glory in being an officer, only worry and knocks. I hope to live to see Fred Kenney prove himself worthy of filling his office by being true to himself and the people of your city. An old Persian proverb that has done service through many generations best expresses the nature of this independence. To quote: "He who knows not, and knows not that he knows not is a fool."

"He who knows not and knows that he knows not, is teachable." Instruct him!

"He who knows and knows not that he knows, is asleep.—Awake him!"

"He who knows and knows that he knows, is a wise man.—Follow him!"

I believe Fred knows and is following this motto: "To know the law, and live a life of service to mankind. Man is doing the greatest injury and injustice to his own soul when he thinks and acts contrary to the will of God. It is 'peace' that we need. To accomplish your task to the success of your endeavors, I pray God may be ever present guiding and directing you, for without his sustaining power and grace we are indeed helpless.

I will close by saying:

"I will strive to find contentment in the paths that I must tread. I will cease to have resentment when another moves ahead. I will try to see the beauty spread before me rain or shine.

I will cease to preach your duty and be more concerned with mine."

I will be glad to receive a letter from any of my friends.

EVA C. EASTON.

ST. CLOUD METHODIST DOINGS

Last Friday night was a busy one for St. Cloud Methodists. The Junior Epworth League held a social at the Annex, and all were invited. A fine program was rendered by the little people, the climax of which was when little Miss Parker made a well appointed speech, and presented a quilt to the pastor, saying it was in appreciation of his kindness to the children and an expression of their remembrance of the manner in which he had directed the work of the Juniors. The quilt has been made by the children during their summer vacation. Also, the G. R. G.'s had a social in the parsonage at the same time. The girls greatly enjoyed the evening and the candy and the good time. They are always welcome. The choir practice was all there was besides the foregoing meetings at the church. However, there was a meeting of "Unit" No. 4 at the home of Mrs. Thomas, which was one long to be remembered as one of the very best ever held in town. Let the good work proceed.

Sister J. H. Towleron passed to her heavenly reward last Sunday evening. She was a good woman, full of faith and good works, and her children follow in her footsteps. She lived the sort of Christian life that appealed to her children as the right way. Her obituary appears elsewhere in this issue.

The Woman's Home Missionary society met in the Annex today, in their regular monthly meeting. An interesting program was given, and all present greatly enjoyed the exercises. The W. H. M. S. grows better each month. All women, whether members of the church or not, may become members. It is one of the greatest societies in the world, and is doing a work for humanity second to none.

Another "Unit" has been organized with Mrs. Julia B. French as the leader. This unit will cover that portion of the city from 10th street and Illinois avenue northeast to the city limits. The first meeting was held at the home of Mrs. French at the corner of 8th street and Illinois avenue last Tuesday evening, and was a precious time, though but few were present because of the rain.

Conceded The Point.

"I'm no speechmaker," began the first man on the program. After he had rambled along an hour or more, he repeated the statement; and a voice from the audience yelled: "We concede the point."—Louisville (Ky.) Courier-Journal.

OWNING A HOME HAS BECOME A NECESSITY

Owning a home has practically become a necessity in St. Cloud, provided the man of family cares to enjoy that peace of mind and happiness that can be secured only through the knowledge that he is the owner of the place in which he resides.

The home owner is satisfied because:

He is not constantly dreading that some one else will pay a higher rental or buy the house, forcing him to move.

He is not worried over the rent man calling each month at his home.

He is contented because he knows he can not be forced to vacate and perhaps be forced to take any kind of a cottage or shack and pay an exorbitant rental.

In these times in St. Cloud the man who rents a home can not be sure that tomorrow he will not get notice to vacate, for there are hundreds of families waiting the chance to get a desirable house and they will buy or pay a higher rental to get it. How many cases have you heard of in the past few weeks who were forced to move because some one else either bid higher for the house or else bought it.

YOU MAY BE THE NEXT UNFORTUNATE MAN.

So why not take advantage of the inducements we are offering persons who want to own their homes—we have the most desirable locations for homes that can be found in the city—and then

YOU WILL BE AMONG THE CONTENTED FAMILIES

Why not think it over and act without delay. Building material is not going down. It will not do so for years. Neither will rents be reduced, so it is up to the head of every family to own a home and be among the contented people.

This year's fair will eclipse any previous event in every way, according to B. K. The fair, which opens Nov. 22, and continues through to November 29, will rival any other exposition in the South and will assemble the most representative number of Florida exhibits ever brought together. Amusement features will be of the very highest class and will include some of the most sensational devices ever placed before the public.

Particular attention will be paid to the cattle and swine departments, and entries for these sections of the fair have come in such great numbers that it has been found necessary to considerably enlarge the buildings of each. The poultry department also is being considerably enlarged and the greatest cattle, swine and poultry shows ever assembled in the South will be produced here during the fair.

If you are lame every morning, and suffer from urinary ills, there must be a cause. Often it's weak kidneys. To strengthen the weakened kidneys and avert more serious troubles, use Doan's Kidney Pills. You can get this medicine at

J. L. Wirt, retired furniture dealer, 23 Broadway, Bartow, Fla., says: "I suffered from the effect of lame back some few years ago. My back was lame and sore, especially mornings, and I found great difficulty in dressing. My kidneys acted too frequently and I had to get up in the night on this account, losing much sleep. I got dizzy once in a while, too. Reading about Doan's Kidney Pills I got a box and they entirely relieved me of the back ache, strengthened my kidneys and fixed me up in good shape."

DESIGNS FOR FALL

More Width Is the Decree of Leaders of Fashion.

Extensive Choice Will Be Allowed
Wearers in the Selection of Favorite Goods and Colors.

The phrase that sums up the new fashions for the autumn is "more width." There is a very distinct movement on foot to get away from the narrow, constricted styles. Paris never adopted the lead-pencil silhouette with its long tight skirt that was used by some American houses. To the easy width that they have been using they have added even more fullness, in tunics, circular skirts, gathered skirts and hip draperies. The most distinct departure in the styles is the circular tunic, circular blouse and circular skirt. This new cut not only gives more width, but a new silhouette.

For street dresses these skirt styles will be used in tricot, soft twills, light-weight duvety, serge, gabardine, broadcloth, checks and plaids. The same materials will be used for the chemise dresses which Paris goes on creating with fresh variety and interesting details in the way of new vests, tucked skirts, etc. For afternoon dresses the smartest materials will be the satin-finished silks like satin, charmeuse and crepe meteor. Faille and moire will also be good, because they have a certain stiffness and body which accents the new silhouette. Taffeta will be used, but will not be as fashionable as satin. These same silk materials will be employed for evening, for the theater and for dancing dresses. For their most formal evening gowns older women will use the velvet and metal brocades and metal cloths, while young girls and debutantes will use tulle, chiffon, georgette or net as well as the soft silks and satins.

For day dresses there will be the short sleeve, the open neck, either collarless or with one of the new stand-away or plaited collars, the long blouse, the redingote styles, the use of multitucked skirts, versions of the vest, and the draped hip-length body that suggests the line of the figure.

The wide circular skirts are used for street dresses, afternoon dresses and evening gowns, but not for suits. For the suit there is a slightly wider skirt with straight lines, but with no unnecessary width, which would be burdensome in walking. For the suits the coats are also cut on a straight silhouette, even when there is the effect of soft fullness that you get in the new blouse coats. The autumn suits will be made on more tailored lines, especially when they are used for hacking and walking. You will find them at their smartest in striped and checked materials, in men's wear mixtures, tweed, oxford and covert cloth. They are also made of serge, poplin, gabardine, tricot and twills. These last materials can be used for either the tailored or the semitailored suit, and for the latter there are also the duvety, velveteens, wool velours, meltons, camel's-hair cloth and broadcloth. The very long belted coat is used by the French houses and is extremely good looking.—From Dellmenor.

MILADY'S COIFFURE

A charming effect in women's hair-dress produced by an exquisitely constructed comb, somewhat resembling a beautiful butterfly.

FASHION TIPS

Great vogue is predicted for the novelty hatpin in the large ball shapes. Autumnal browns and reds are proclaimed the leading suit shades for fall.

Apricot-colored duvety, couched all over in navy blue, makes an attractive short overblouse.

Short sleeves are growing in popularity; many are shown on duvety street models.

Hip draperies and pannier effects are accentuated in the youthful taffeta evening frocks.

Lace tunics, stiffened so that they extend outward, are a feature of some smart dance and dinner dresses. Hair cloth is used for this purpose.

The all-black hat is indorsed as the most fashionable for dressy wear, and velvet is the chosen material for exclusive models.

A smart tailored satin is a novel embroidery in lighter shade in ratine embroidery and has a shallow ripple and deep tunic, both circular.

WILSON INVADERS HOUSE OF FOES

CARRIES HIS BATTLE FOR LEAGUE OF NATIONS INTO HOME OF HIS ENEMIES.

Informa Them of Lives and Treasure Poured Out to Save Civilization.

(By Mt. Clemens News Bureau)

Aboard President Wilson's Special train—Carrying his war against those who oppose the adoption by the United States of the peace treaty and the covenant of the League of Nations into their households, President Wilson last week invaded California.

And there, where the question on which league opponents have hammered the hardest, that of Shan Tung—is of most interest, the president found the same enthusiasm among the people for peace and for insurance against future wars. The people want the long controversy ended. They want this country to be able to again turn its undivided attention to social, economic and industrial development. Their leaders may not feel this way, but judging from the expressions which met the president on every side. The leaders have overstepped the limits of the people's patience in their stubborn determination to force a change in the great document.

Must Take This League.

"We must take this League of Nations," said the president, "for there is no way in which another can be obtained without compelling reconsideration by the powers. And it would sit very ill upon my stomach to take it back to Germany for consideration."

"All over the world people are looking to us with confidence our rivals along with the weaker nations. I pray God that the gentlemen who are delaying this thing may presently see it in a different light."

Germany, the president declared, is taking new courage from our delay in ratifying the treaty and her newspapers and public men were again becoming arrogantly outspoken.

Deeply impressive were the figures of the cost of the late war, in lives and dollars. It was the first time that the official statistics have been made public and the tremendous totals shocked the president's audiences.

Shows Cost of World War.

"The war," said President Wilson, cost Great Britain and her Dominions $38,000,000,000; France $24,000,000,000; the United States $22,000,000,000; Russia $18,000,000,000; Italy $13,000,000,000 and a total, including the expenditures of Japan, Belgium and other small countries, of $123,000,000,000.

"It cost the Central Powers as follows: Germany $39,000,000,000; Austria-Hungary, $21,000,000,000; Turkey and Bulgaria $3,000,000,000.

"The United States," the president said, "spent one million dollars an hour night and day for two years in its struggle to save civilization. All this, however, fades into insignificance when the deaths by battle are considered," declared the president. Russia gave 1,700,000 men; Germany 1,600,000; France 1,380,000; Great Britain 900,000; Italy 364,000; the United States 50,300. In all, almost 7,500,000 men perished in the great struggle, or 1,500,000 more men than died in all of the wars of the previous 100 years.

Should Remember Recent Horrors.

"These are terrible facts, and we ought never to forget them. We went into this war to do a thing that was fundamental for the world and what I have come out on this journey for is to determine whether the country has forgotten or not. I have found out. The country has not forgotten and it will never permit any who stands in the way of the fulfillment of our great pledges, ever to forget the sorrowful day he made the attempt."

Arbitration and discussion, the president pointed out, must replace force of arms in the settlement of world controversies. Constantly he dwells upon the fact that all the nations in the League agree to do one of two things, first to submit their differences to arbitration, in which case they agree to abide by the decision rendered, or, if unwilling to arbitrate, to have their case discussed by the Council of the League, in which case six months is granted for discussion. Three months must elapse following the result of this last step in arbitration before the nation concerned can declare war.

Holds Out Hope for Ireland.

The president took advantage of questions propounded by the San Francisco Labor Council to give the inference that he believes Ireland can bring her case before the League of Nations for settlement when the League is actually in existence.

Shan Tung, he declared, will be returned to China. Japan, he said, had given her solemn pledge to that effect. And with the League of Nations in force, said the president, we can, if occasion arises, stand forth and say, "This shall be done."

Camel CIGARETTES

Smokers realize that the value is in the cigarettes and do not expect premiums or coupons!

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packages of 20 cigarettes; or ten packages (200 cigarettes) in a glassine-paper-covered carton.
We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.

If you want to know what rare and unusual enjoyment Camels provide smoke them in comparison with any cigarette in the world at any price!

CAMELS are a cigarette revelation any way you consider them! Take quality, or refreshing flavor and fragrance; or, that wonderful mellow-mild-smoothness you never before got in a cigarette smoke! Yet Camels are so full-bodied and so full-of-satisfaction you marvel that so much delight could be put into a cigarette!

Camels expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos makes them so irresistibly appetizing! And, the blend explains why it is possible for you to smoke Camels liberally without tiring your taste! You will prefer Camels to either kind of tobacco smoked straight!

You'll realize pretty quick, too, that among the many reasons you smoke Camels is their freedom from any unpleasant cigarette aftertaste or unpleasant cigarette odor!

Once you know Camels you won't take much stock in premiums, coupons or gifts! You'll prefer Camel quality!

Director of Railroads Asks For Co-operation of Shipper

been increased and every effort is being made both in railroad shops and in the office of the director to reduce the number of bad order cars.

I earnestly urge all shippers and receivers of freight to redouble their efforts to promote freight car efficiency.

Shippers of freight can assist:

1. By loading cars to full visible or carrying capacity.

2. By prompt loading and release to the carrier.

3. By ordering cars only when actually required.

4. By eliminating the use of railway equipment in trap or transfer service when tonnage can be handled by motor truck or wagon.

5. By reducing the diversion and re-consignment of cars to a minimum.

Receivers of freight can assist:

1. By prompt unloading of cars and notice thereof to the carrier.

2. By receiving goods in quantities representing the full safe carrying capacity of cars and disregarding trace units.

3. By ordering from the nearest available source.

4. By pooling orders so as to secure full car load.

A resumption of intensive loading will not merely reduce the number of cars under load but will also relieve congested terminals where it is a question of track room rather than of equipment.

With a strong concerted effort on the part of the Railroad Administration and the shippers and receivers of freight it is hoped that during the period of abnormally heavy traffic with which we are now confronted the nation's transportation needs may be met with reasonable satisfaction to all parties.

I earnestly ask the continued and even more effective cooperation of all shippers and receivers of freight.
